

OTHERS IMPLICATED

By a Remark Said to Have Been Made at the Molineux Murder Trial.

Witness Denied the Charge

Of Having Recognized Harry Cornish, Who Has Been a Prominent Figure in the Sensational Murder Case Since the Beginning.

New York, Nov. 7.—In the Molineux murder trial today, Mr. Adams, Mrs. Rogers' brother, took the stand. He said that he sat in front of Mrs. Stephenson yesterday and that a man sitting beside her said "That's Cornish" and she answered: "Is it?" Counsel Black asked Stephenson to stand up and Adams identified him as the man. "The prosecution rests," said Osborne. "Mrs. Stephenson, take the stand," said Black. "Did your husband say to you yesterday 'There's Cornish'?" "He did not," was Mrs. Stephenson's answer. Mr. Stephenson was called and denied Adams' testimony. He said he had never seen Cornish before. Stephenson on cross examination said his wife told him about the poisoned package at the time the case first appeared in the papers four years ago but he did not believe much of her story. Court adjourned to Monday.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 7.—DEWITT C. BADGER, DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN-ELECT FROM THIS DISTRICT, MAY HAVE SOME TROUBLE IN SECURING HIS SEAT. THERE IS NO QUESTION ABOUT HIS HAVING RECEIVED A SAFETY OF VOTES, BUT NUMEROUS REPUBLICANS ARE INSISTING THAT THE OHIO CONSTITUTION BE DROPPED IN BADGER'S PATH TO WASHINGTON AS A BARRIER AGAINST HIM. THESE REPUBLICANS HAVE APPEALED TO ATTORNEY GENERAL SHEETS FOR HIS OPINION AND TODAY HE GAVE OUT AN INFORMAL OPINION THAT ALL VOTES CAST FOR BADGER ARE VOID, SINCE BADGER WAS COMPELLED BY THE CONSTITUTION TO RESIGN AS COMMON PLEAS JUDGE BEFORE HE COULD RECEIVE LEGAL VOTES FOR CONGRESS.

CHARTER

Ordered by the Gymnastic Club

Which Will Proceed According to the Statutes.

Other Matches Will be Made to Test the Fight Which the Club's Opponents Have Started.

Not discouraged by the failure to bring Biz Mackey and Eddie Bowers together last night, the Lima Gymnastic club has gone a step further and will secure a state charter to complete the organization. An application was made yesterday by manager Harry Moore and he expects in a few days to be in a position to proceed with his arrangements for a series of matches between fistic celebrities.

Such a club is in existence at Findlay and for a year or more these have frequent engagements in which Mackey and others have participated. The authorities there have not interfered for the reason that the funds have been limited to the number prescribed by law and the affair conducted according to the terms laid down in the statutes.

That there will be an effort made in Lima to prevent the club from carrying out its intentions is not problematical. The ministerial association has taken a determined stand, and yesterday won a victory, having succeeded in stopping all arrangements for the go advertised for tonight. It remains to be seen now whether or not the protection of a charter will give the club an advantage greater than its antagonists can overcome.

New York, Nov. 7.—Chairman Thomas, of the Erie Railroad, in an interview today, denied the stories printed yesterday that hard coal will be scarce all winter. They will make their home for the present in the block occupied by the Latham restaurant on south Main street.

TOTAL VOTE OF THE STATE

According to Comparison Will Approximate the 775,000 Mark.

Redistricting for Benefit of Party in Power Has Already Begun in Ohio Capital. Fight is on Between Aspirants for Melhorn's Place.

Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—(Special)—The first county to send in its official vote abstract of Tuesday's election, was Lawrence. It came in by special messenger to Secretary of State Laylin. It shows that the total vote there was 6,628 or 352 more than last year. Greene county came in soon after, showing a total vote of 5,891, which is a loss of 254 as compared with last year.

Close figures on the total vote for secretary of state, upon which most of the prize guessing contests were based this year, are putting the figure well below 800,000. It will be noticed that Chairman Dick is now placing the total vote at 300,000. The total state vote is always quite a good deal larger than the total vote for any one office, larger than even that for the office placed at the head of the ticket. To make a comparison that will be safe, they are going back to the vote for secretary of state four years ago, when Charles Kinney was elected the second time. The vote for this same office two years ago is not regarded as safe for the reason that it was made at the same time that a presidential election was held. That year (1898) the total state vote was 793,169, but the total vote for secretary of state was only 779,630—a difference of 13,539. Mr. Guthrie, his opponent, was not an objectionable party to the members of the Democratic party. It is believed that the disparity this year between the total state vote and that for secretary of state will be fully 25,000. If so, and if Chairman Dick is right about the total vote—the total prize guesser will be found to have placed his figure somewhere around 775,000.

Fight is On.

The fight for the appointment to succeed Judge Melhorn, deceased, of Kenton, on the common pleas bench, has begun in earnest, and delegations from that district are calling on the governor in the interest of friends.

Gerrymandering.

Members of the city council here are now working upon plans for the redistricting of this city in accordance with the provision of the municipal code. The general outline of the plan of redistricting has been agreed upon. The council being Republican, the plan provides for eight Republican wards and three Democratic, and the Democratic wards will be so numbered that the councilmen representing them will be elected next spring for the short term.

A conference of the Republican members was held immediately after the election and the above outlined plan was agreed upon. The rough draft of the redistricting ordinance was made and turned over to one of the councilmen. It was also agreed that the committee should be appointed at the meeting of council next Monday evening, to finish the ordinance.

SECRETARY SHAW CHANGES HIS MIND

Now That the Election is Over He Will Not Accept Bonds.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Secretary of treasury Shaw returned to Washington from Iowa this morning and the first thing he did, after consulting with assistant secretary Allen, was to decide to accept no more state or municipal bonds as security from government deposits. He regards the emergency in the monetary situation as having passed, and that there is no longer any necessity for taking any other than government bonds as collateral for deposits.

CABINET

Met Today for the First Time Since Adjournment.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The first cabinet meeting since the adjournment of congress was held today and the members discussed with the President his forthcoming message to congress. It will repeat suggestions of last year regarding the Cuban tariff and trust policies.

distance and to present it to the council at the first meeting after November 15th, when the law goes into effect for all purposes of preparing for next spring's election and for redistricting. Unless the council redistricts by the first of January, the common pleas judges will have to do the work.

The question has been raised as to whether Mayor Hinkle might not veto the redistricting ordinance. Members of the council have taken the opinion of attorneys on this and the attorneys consulted have been unanimously of the opinion that the council has exclusive authority in the matter, and that the ordinance does not have to have the mayor's approval before going into effect.

Youthful Convicts.

Judge John Reeves, of the common pleas court of Fairfield county, has contributed to the kindergarten department of the penitentiary in rather a peculiar way. Sheriff Ruitze, of that county delivered to the penitentiary two boys to serve long sentences. The prisoners are William Howard and Harry Elmore, ages 17 and 19 years respectively, and their personal appearance does not belie their age. They were convicted of burglary. Where the singular thing comes in is that the sentencing judge did not know that the law had been changed, compelling him to send persons of that age to the Ohio State Reformatory. The law gives him discretionary powers where the convict is between the age of 21 and 30, but under that age and down to 16, they must be sent to the reformatory for service. It is not known what will be done with the case, but the probabilities are that a motion will be made to the court for resentencing, and in that event they most certainly will be sent to the reformatory.

Condition of O. S. U.

The annual report of the Ohio State University for the year ending June 30 last, has been filed with the governor. It shows that the total endowment fund of the institution is now $652,669.15—$4,668.15 having been added to it in the last year. The annual interest on this is now $33,761.99. The W. J. Bryan fund, donated by that gentleman, the proceeds to be devoted to awards for excellence in study of government, has now grown to $308.69, being made part of the irreducible state debt. It yields annually $18.52.

The total receipts of the institution for the year were $420,000 and the total expenditures $406,175, leaving a balance on hand of $13,325. The total bonded debt of the institution is now $280,000 of which $30,000 draws 6 per cent interest and the rest 4½. The number of students in attendance during the year was 1,516, and there are now over 1,600 in attendance. The estimated expenses for the current year are $483,078.50.

DEATH

Of an Estimable
Young Lady

In South Lima

Another Young Couple are Married.

Bold Robbers Enter the Residence of J. W. Ortman, Yesterday.

Three Young Boys are Arrested for Disturbing the Peace on East
Vine Street Last Night.

At her home on St. Johns avenue just night at eleven-thirty o'clock, Miss Eva Armstrong, one of the most estimable young ladies of south Lima, succumbed to the inevitable, after a brief illness resulting from a severe surgical operation which she underwent at her home a few days ago. This sad intelligence was a terrible shock to her legion of friends, who were confidently expecting her early recovery. The inexorable grief of her relatives can be more easily imagined than described. Last night near the hour of midnight, the angel of death came and with the cold hand of mystery, marked her for the silent tomb. The light faded from her eyes the curtains of life were drawn and she sank back into the calm repose of an eternal sleep that knows no waking other than that in the great beyond, upon resurrection's morn. Surrounded by the tearful presence of her heartbroken relatives she sweetly surrendered to the inevitable. Her life has always been one of an exemplary nature, filled with the consciousness and powerful influences of a noble christian character. Her irreparable loss is deeply felt by the brothers and sisters, but more especially by the mother, who, bowed in the venerated attitude of honored age, has received a blow that causes most intense anguish. But the sweet consolation ever remains, that though her loved one has passed from out this vale of tears, down through the valley and shadow of death, she waits for her upon the borders of that mysterious land from which no traveler ever returns and that in the great beyond they will be together again. Miss Armstrong was born at Sabina, Clermont county, twenty-four years ago. She came with her parents to this city where she has resided a number of years. During her residence here she made many and lasting friendships. On account of her pleasing disposition she readily made and retained the esteem of hosts of acquaintances who can scarcely realize she has been so suddenly removed from the circles in which she was always a great favorite. Miss Armstrong was a charming and accomplished young lady, whose demise is not only a distinct loss to her family, but the community as well. The grief-stricken relatives have the entire sympathy of the people of south Lima, in their sad bereavement. Sunday morning at ten o'clock the remains will be taken to the Montezuma, M. E. church, where the obsequies will be performed. Rev. Stewart Baumgardner, of west Elm street, officiating. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Montezuma.

Masquerade Party.

Critically Ill.
The many friends of Miss Eva Armstrong residing on St. Johns avenue will be sorry to learn she is precariously ill. A few days ago, at her home she submitted to a surgical operation. It is hoped by her friends that she will yet recover despite her present alarming condition.

Bought Property.
Thomas Harter has purchased and now occupies with his family the residence on west Kibby street, formerly owned by L. J. Cox.

Known Here.

Local friends of W. H. Eustine, of Alger, will regret to learn his place of business and residence were badly damaged by fire a few evenings ago.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY.
J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world."

An Old Time Remedy.

In the ice chest of a Germantown residence there are always lying four or five big keys. This is because the nose of the little son of the house bleeds every few days, and nothing stops the hemorrhage like the dropping a large, cold key down the child's back, says the Philadelphia Record. He squirms and cries out before the shock, and then in a moment he is well, his nose stops bleeding. A physician said that the cold key remedy for the hemorrhage of the nose was as old, he supposed, as keys themselves are. "It is a very good remedy," he went on, "and its curative power is due to the shock it gives. But isn't it an odd thing to use—a cold key? Almost as odd, to my mind, as the candle with which some persons tallow their noses when they have a cold. But the candle remedy does no good, so far as I can see, whereas the key remedy is one of the best in the business."

He Didn't Take the Hint.

Chicago once had as its superintendent of city schools a bachelor named Howland, whose gruffness of manner and love of neatness were proverbial. Going into the room of a young and attractive teacher one day, Mr. Howland took notice of an untidy desk and a carelessly arranged bookshelf, and, pointing his finger at them, queried brusquely:

"What kind of a housekeeper do you think you'd make?"

"Why, Mr. Howland, are you looking for one?" was the humorously quizzical reply.

His Grave.

Bishop Witherspoon used to tell a story of a greedy clergyman who when asked to say grace looked anxiously to see if there were champagne glasses on the table. If there were, he began, "Bountiful Jehovah!" But if he saw only claret glasses he said, "We are not worthy of the least of thy mercies."

Foley's Honey and Tar always stops the cough and heals the lungs. Refuse substitutes.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

A CURE FOR ALL.

Not a Patent Cure-all, nor a Modern Miracle, but Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach trouble. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

STOPPED THE STORM.

The Snow Was a Little Too Heavy to Suit the Actor.

"Mechanical devices are now made wonderfully real on the stage," said the old stock actor. "It hasn't been so many years ago since even the simple device of depicting a snowstorm was regarded an achievement. I remember on one occasion I was out with a company playing repertoire and in one melodrama—I don't even now recall the name—I took the part of an old man whose daughter, the heroine, had been abducted. I was supposed to be blind, and my strong scene was in the third act, when I went out into a snowstorm in search of my daughter. She was lying in a drift, and as I bobbed across the stage I kept crying: 'Me che-ld! Where is me che-ld!'"

"Well, it was early in the season and the play was the first attraction at that theater. The scene painters had been at work and had dropped several paint brushes, hammers and other articles into the sheet that held the snowstorm. As the stage hands in the dyes shook the sheets to make the snow come out a couple of hammers came down and just missed me by an inch. I was blind and didn't dare to look up, but when a monkey wrench just grazed my temple I had presence of mind enough to yell: 'See yonder moon! The storm is over!' The stage hands took their cue and let up on me, and the audience never stopped to question how a blind man could see yonder moon."—Philadelphia Record.

STEPPED IN CORRUPTION.

Politically speaking there is no state in the American union more completely debauched than Pennsylvania. In an interview the other day with James Creelman, the correspondent of the New York World, Mr. John W. Wamamaker talked very plainly about the total depravity of machine politics on the state, and declared that the coal strike was the outgrowth of the corruption that has distinguished the rule of Senator Quay.

The Legislature and all other instrumentalities of public service in Pennsylvania, said Mr. Wamamaker, are literally owned and used when ever wanted by the large corrupt combinations which furnish the money by which the Quay gang defeats every effort to raise this Commonwealth out of the abyss of shame into which it has fallen.

Certain of the trusts in Pennsylvania have violated the Constitution of the State for years. The coal railroads have conducted their business in plain and defiant disregard of the Constitution. The gang which rules the state controls the courts and fixes the juries. It has been impossible to punish the ballot-box stuffing and other election crimes. The corruption of our (election) system is notorious. The office holders form a political trust. State funds appropriated for colleges, universities, hospitals and charities, are manipulated to buy opposition, and subsidize those who are opposed to the Quay machine. Every the churches and clergymen with a few brave exceptions are silent. Nothing but a patriotic movement can destroy the power that defiles the Constitution and circumvents the laws.

The fact that Quay's cousin, Pennypacker, has been elected governor by a majority of something more than 100,000 shows that the people of Pennsylvania are content to be ruled by an infamous and corrupt political machine and deserve all that may be coming to them in the way of bad government. They have apparently indulged at the polls the assertion made by Pennypacker that Quay is a greater man than Daniel Webster. It can not be questioned, however, that Mr. Wamamaker is fully conversant with the political conditions in Pennsylvania and that he has been fighting the Quay machine for a number of years, but unfortunately, he is a hide-bound partisan and on election day steps up to the polls and by his vote supports the man and measures that he so loudly opposes with his mouth. He and other Republicans who think like him assist to keep in power the man whose name is associated with the Quay machine and who is the public enemy of the state. He would please the country very much if he were to go any back and sit down.

VICTORY IN DEFEAT.

It does not always require absolute success in every detail to constitute substantial victory. Triumph has often been purchased at a cost which has left those winning it more disheartened, undone than were their opponents who lost. It seems to have been such a result as this that the Republicans achieved in the elections Tuesday. In the sense of losing control of the country they may be said to have won but as compared to the sweeping victories they have been accustomed to since 1896 the result may truly be characterized as disastrous from a Republican point of view. While there appeared to be good ground for hoping that the Democrats would wrest control of the House from the Republican opponents yet there is some comfort to be drawn from the fact that when the day of reckoning comes, as come it inevitably must within a short time, the responsibility for all the ills that result from over-capitalization, trust control of everything, and the desperate financial and legislative exploitation of the past few years will be chargeable wholly to the Republicans.

The splendid vote that Coker piled up in New York while failing just short of securing his election was nevertheless a marvelous victory. New York is the home of the President and of Tom Platt who is regarded as the most astute of all the Republican State leaders and a plurality for the Democratic candidate of 115,000 votes in Greater New York was not only unprecedented but under the circumstances it can not be considered in any other light than as a notable victory. An unusual and a most suspicious vote in the upper part of the state saved Odell but the big vote in Greater New York is like the hand writing on the wall, presaging an early and disaster downfall of the Republican forces in the Congressional elections distinctive gains were made by the Democrats in a number of States and the Republican majority is substantially reduced.

On the whole it would appear that the Democrats came out of this election with much cause for congratulation. They did not reap the laurels that some overenthusiastic friends predicted for them, but they lost nothing and they did make the most astonishing substantial gains which is a great deal more than the Republicans can claim to have accomplished. Its moral effect upon the party can not fail to be most salutary as it is recognized to be but the foreshadowing of a vigorous and irresistible forward movement all along the Democratic lines during the two years intervening before the great battle of 1904.

FATHER AND SON

Each Held a Position on the Hoosier Bench.

In Indianapolis Ind. Nov. 7.—Judge John H. Baker, of the United States district court today announced his resignation. This has been expected ever since his son, Francis, was appointed judge of the United States circuit court several months ago. He was in a peculiar position of having his decisions reviewed by his son and there was much criticism, due to the fact that the father and son held two positions of such importance. Judge Baker is close to the age of retirement.

An Avalanche of Bargains

The Manufacturers Sale.

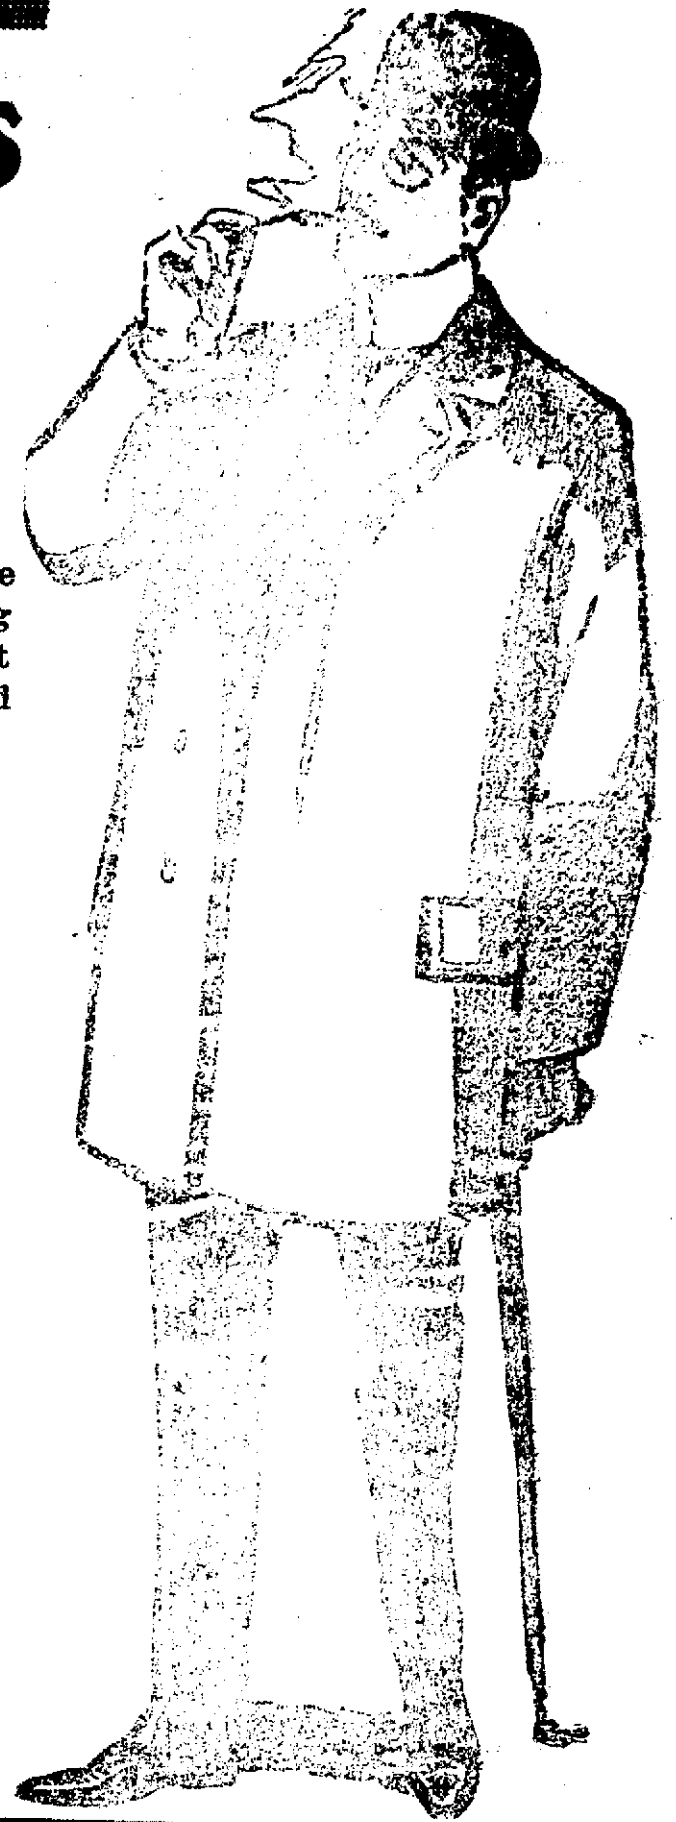

The second series of this great sale begins Saturday morning, November 8th. We say second series because the second consignment of the great Black & Meyer high grade stock is now on the tables of our store and better looking clothing you never saw. The manufacturers have likewise cautioned us not to take any risk of carrying it over until next season, but to mark it cheap, astonish your people, show them how little good clothing can be bought for. We have obeyed the instructions to the letter and

Upon Our Honor as Merchants, We Unhesitatingly
Say You Never Saw or Bought Honest, Commendable
High Grade Clothing for so Little Money.

We've told you the reason and object of this great sale. There are perhaps some who do not observe, but have since become interested. For those we repeat the cause. The great strike in the coal regions severely interfered with the trade of merchants and as they had placed their orders before the strike was ordered they bought heavily. They were at a loss what to do with the goods in the face of existing conditions, and therefore appealed to the manufacturers to reconsider their contracts. Black & Meyer endeavoring to protect their customers, knowing that the strike would at some time cease, cheerfully wrote their trade to reconsider their orders if they wished and the result was that a large portion of the goods they had contracted to deliver was left on their hands.

Black & Meyer are Standing the Loss.
Our Customers are Reaping the Gain.

Look over this array of items. Don't be contented after simply reading them. Come to the store, compare the goods with those advertised. See if we are truthful. then act, If after you have bought and you feel dissatisfied, why, your money back.

Edward Lang Tells How the trick was Turned on Elias Grafton

But Denies That He is Guilty of Highway Robbery as Charged in the Grand Jury Indictment.

Edward Lang, who, with Earl Newman, was indicted by the grand jury for highway robbery, their offense being the alleged holding up of Elias Grafton, in the Union street tunnel, is on trial today. The defense was conducted by Attorney Tom Hamilton who took the stand that the indictment charged an offense that was not committed.

It was admitted by Lang, who, by the way, is a law student, that they got $5 of Grafton, but it was done through a gamblers' trick which the old man was willing to bite on. Lang was self-composed and smilingly told of the method adopted to fleece the unsuspecting victim. There was no attempt made to cover up the offense so far as the trick could be called one, but it remains for the jury to decide whether the evidence in the case supports the indictment charging highway robbery.

Grafton says he was not assaulted or placed in fear as the indictment charges, but says that they took the money from him when he had it in his hand, and walked off with it. The old man became confused in his statements and his story didn't agree with what he told when the boys were arrested and arraigned before the mayor.

Neither of the attorneys for the defense or the prosecutor consumed very much time in argument, and Judge Cunningham delivered his charge at three o'clock this afternoon.

Wants a Fair Deal.

WEDDING

Kept a Secret Since Last Easter.

J. Fred Risser, who was formerly foreman at the green house east of the fair grounds, but who is now manager of the Putnam county telephone exchange, has been the possessor of a treasured secret since last Easter, but good things are hard to keep and it has leaked out that when Billies were the rage, Mr. Risser was quietly married to Miss Emma Fensler, formerly of Bluffton. They will make their home at Ottawa, where friends can forward or present their congratulations.

BLOW

Was Struck at the Y. M. C. A.

In the Effort

To Turn Public Sentiment
from Prize Fight

What is Sauce for the Goose is Also Sauce for the Gander

Was the Stand Taken by Those Who Advocated the Mill, But the Comparisons Show a Difference.

The argument offered by those who are interested in prize fighting, and were personally interested in carrying out the arrangements for a contest this evening between Biz Mackey and Eddie Bowers, have taken a poor measure in supporting their claims by backbiting at the Y. M. C. A. The association, it is true, gave an entertainment a short time ago in which R. D. MacDonald and Dr. A. L. Jones were matched in a glove contest of five rounds. But who saw it that observed anything in common with a prize fight?

The gloves used are not the skin-tight affairs built for punishment, but so made that they could do about as much damage as a sofa pillow. Furthermore, the contest was one of science in which both men were skilled, and there was no attempt made to deliver what in prize parlance is known as a knockout blow. There was no record of "first blood," no seconds armed with sponges and dope, and no purse. All of these things enter into what the authorities of every state in the union have frowned upon, and the failure to pull off a fight in so many instances has given a black eye to the so-called "sport." The association has much to do with the objection which has been aroused, as the supporters and followers of prize fighting are composed, as a rule, of men who gamble and bet for a livelihood.

The ministers of the city were the ones who sought out the authorities and demanded their interference to prevent tonight's contest and in doing so, they followed out a precedent that has long been established.

A Rapid Growth.

The business men's class of the Y. M. C. A. is at the height of its glory. A wonderful interest has been aroused and new members are being added every week, the entire number passing the fifty mark. Wednesday afternoon there were thirty-six representative business men on the floor and the new additions found in Prof. Shepard's physical exercises an invigoration which prompts their constant attendance. Following are the names of the various games which have been popular in the past, and which are one of the most enjoyable and profitable in the history of the class in the Y. M. C. A. The following is a complete list of those who compose the class:

L. H. Kibby, Rev. Hoyt, Rev. Ballinger, Rev. Swanson, Rev. Kramer, Rev. Ackerman, Rev. Wolfinger, F. T. Cuthbert, W. Conroy, R. L. Armstrong, R. D. MacDonald, Dr. A. L. Jones, C. McKibben, Howard Dean, Harry Bentley, Dr. Landick, Dr. Pierce, Dr. Van Note, W. J. Ritchie, A. Herring, E. L. Thomas, J. D. Armstrong, O. J. Lloyd, C. E. Thomas, H. A. Albrecht, H. V. Chaso, O. A. Dea, McDugal, Emmet, A. L. White, Frank Metheany, Arthur Thomas, H. H. Breen, L. C. Townsend, T. Trout, J. D. Bailey, M. U. Basinger, E. D. Webb, E. L. Kirk, C. Basinger, S. M. Williams, C. A. Binsamen, Frank Leland, Gibson Dildine, A. F. Everett, Fred Seymour, Max Michael, J. W. Beall, Jason G. Lamison, L. S. Galvin, W. H. Bennett, J. D. Kell, C. A. Zeller, and H. A. Wakefield.

Big Team's Walk Over.

Wednesday evening the representative basketball team of the Y. M. C. A. played a practice game with a picked team composed of members of the association. The big team displayed its superiority by easily taking their opponents into camp, the score resulting 43 to 12. The line up of the representative team is not the same as last year. Smith and Swan both being absent from the city. Frank MacDonald, Miller Landick and Tom Pate filled the vacancies, and all three made a good showing, while Lou Landick and Crosson were as aggressive as ever. With practice, and there promises to be plenty of it, now that the season has fairly begun, Lima will be able to meet the fastest players in the business. The opposing team Wednesday evening included A. MacMonnies, H. Carnes, W. Longworth, Ira Witmer and V. Painter.

Good for Xenia.

A splendid gift has been presented to the Xenia Young Men's Christian Association by Eli Millen, who may be affectionately called the father of the association in that city. Mr. Millen has given the Y. M. C. A. a fine 3 story brick and stone structure, worth $26,000. The building is now occupied on the second and third floors by the association, and on the first floor the post office and two offices rooms. The association has a clear deed to the entire property, and will receive rents from the lower floor and control the building. Mr. Millen had given the use of rooms for a year. The Public Library has been provided a building, of him also.

YOUTHS

Break Into the Elks'
New Home

And Strip Charveliers of Their Ornaments.

Teacher at the West School Building Discovers Some of the Stolen Property in Possession of Pupils.

Yesterday afternoon some members of the local lodge of Elks learned that a number of boys who attend school at the West building had broken into the old Moore residence, now the property of the Elks' lodge, situated at Market and Pierce streets, and had robbed some of the costly chandeliers of their decorations. One chandelier just within the main entrance of the building, and valued at $75 or $100, was thoroughly stripped by the youths and rendered useless.

The first clue to the thefts and to the identity of the youths who committed them, was discovered by one of the teachers at the West school building when some of the boys appeared at the building with some glass spangles. Some of the ornaments have already been recovered and the parents of children who have other pieces in their possession will be requested to have the remaining pieces returned at once.

MACKEY

Will Meet Gus Bezenah Next
Thursday Night

And Will Keep Up the Training He Did for His Proposed Match
With Bowers.

Biz Mackey will not box Eddie Bowers in Lima tonight as has been announced, comments the Findlay Republican. The colored boy sent word last night that it was impossible for him to appear. Mackey was considerably disappointed as he had placed himself in top-notch condition for the go by weeks of faithful training. A better bout, however, is scheduled in this city next Thursday night when Gus Bezenah will appear in Findlay for the second go with Mackey. The boys boxed a ten-round draw in Findlay a year or so ago, which was considered the finest ever witnessed in this part of the state. The heavy Gus insisted on 118 pounds at 1 p. m., but finally agreed to 125 pounds at the ringside. Bezenah is looked on as one of the best 118-pound men in the country. He knocked out George Monroe, fought a draw with Billy Richford, besides figuring in other contests with noted opponents. Mackey is in excellent shape but will continue his training with more zeal than ever. Bezenah is the pride of Cincinnati and a defeat over the Queen City man would be a great feather in the cap of the stocky Biz.

The Findlay Republican is in error as to the cause of the match being declared off, as Bowers arrived in Lima yesterday and was prepared to meet Mackey as had been arranged. Bowers was not the disturbing element, interference coming from those who disapproved of the contest and were able to stop it because the Lima gymnastic club was an organization, in name only and had not armed itself with the necessary charter.
